ANNOUNCEMENTS

Davis Theatre, Friday and Saturday, The many admirers of Roscoe Ar-buckle, the famous comedian whose Pas-amount-Arbuckle comedies have provid-ed the world with a vast amount of merriment, will be afforded a delightful surprise with the presentation of the new Paramount screen version of "The Round Up," at the Davis theatre Friday and Saturday. By arrangement with Joseph M. Schenck, the popular comedian stars in this picture in the role of Slim Hoove-

In this George Melford production

Edmund Day's notable stage success. Mr. Arbuckle makes his first appearance is a screen dramatic production, but he appears therein for comedy purposes only, and by virtue of his characterization is jects enough humor into the picture to balance up all the heavy drama which the picture contains.

Although Mr. Arbuckle's work in this picture is of an entirely different nature than in his former film projections, he is funny just the same. The supporting cast headed by Mabel J. Scott and Teen cast headed by Mabel J. Scott and Tem Forman is exceptionally ciever, Jack Dempsey's thrilling serial is nearing the end and is getting more exciting as the net gathers around the villains Larry Semon, that really funny fellow, will be seen in Solid Concrete, which is a sure scream. A very interesting Pathe Review concludes a cerking good bill.

The screen version of Jack Lender's famous novel, "The Sea Wolf," which will be the feature attraction at the Breed theatre today, Friday and Saturday, is said to be replete with spectacular scenes.
